20. At approximately 2:00 p.m. on June 14, 2011, plaintiff was lawfully in the vicinity of Ralph Avenue between Sterling Place and Park Place in Brooklyn, New York.

21. Three of the defendant officers, dressed in plainclothes, suddenly approached plaintiff and began choking him.

22. The officers lacked reasonable suspicion to stop plaintiff.

23. As they were choking him, the officers screamed, in sum and substance, “where are the drugs, spit it out.”

24. Plaintiff was not in possession of any drugs and did not know what the officers were talking about.

25. Plaintiff was arrested, placed into a police van and taken to a police precinct.

26. The officers lacked probable cause to arrest plaintiff for any crime.

27. Plaintiff was falsely charged with Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance.

28. Approximately ten hours later plaintiff was transported to Brooklyn Central Booking where he remained for approximately two days.

29. The officers falsely informed employees of the Kings County District Attorney’s Office that they had observed plaintiff engaged in the sale of drugs.

30. The officers had not observed plaintiff engaged in the sale of drugs.

31. Plaintiff could not make bail and was transported to Riker’s Island where he remained for approximately eight days before all charges against him were dismissed.

32. After spending approximately 10 days in custody, all charges against plaintiff were dismissed.

33. Plaintiff suffered damage as a result of defendants' actions. Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty, suffered emotional distress, mental anguish, fear, pain, bodily injury, anxiety, embarrassment, humiliation, and damage to his reputation.
